

RECIPROCAL BENEFITS OF TEACHING PARTNERSHIPS IN THE MATHEMATICS CLASSROOM

Building effective coaching and mentorship relationships

2019 SPRING
SYMPOSIUM
May 3, 2019
9am-2:30pm
Calgary, AB

PROGRAM

- Engage in math
- Build collaborative partnerships
- Examine partnership models
- Explore opportunities to establish communities of math educators
- Attend a panel discussion where panelists describe personal experiences with teaching partnerships

PRESENTERS:

Cristin Marr

Research & Strategy,
Calgary Board of Education

Rakhee Vijairaghavan

Research & Strategy,
Calgary Board of Education

Teaching Partnerships

AUDIENCE:

Open to mathematics teachers, coaches, mentorship partners and administrators looking to enhance collaboration for the benefits of improving practice and developing leadership in teaching and learning mathematics.

CATERING:

Enjoy morning refreshments and lunch prepared by students in the Culinary Arts Program Central Memorial High School/ Career and Technology Centre Calgary Board of Education

Teaching. Learning. Together.

<https://wordart.com/create>

Find out more and register at

<http://mathteachers.ab.ca>

Emma, Grade 1