

A Page of Problems

Gladys Sterenberg

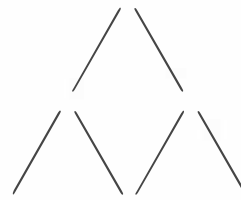

Move three toothpicks to form five squares.

Move two toothpicks to form four squares.

Remove four toothpicks to form one square.
Remove four toothpicks to form two squares.
Remove two toothpicks to form two squares.

Remove three toothpicks to form one triangle.
Remove three toothpicks to form two triangles.
Remove four toothpicks to form two triangles.
Remove two toothpicks to form two triangles.
Use six toothpicks to form four congruent triangles